

DRAFT 17 November 1950

SECRET

LAW

OGC Has Reviewed

MISSION

As a staff officer, under the direct supervision of the Executive, the General Counsel is charged with providing all legal and legislative advice to the Agency.

FUNCTIONS

The General Counsel shall:

- A. Advise all officials and employees of the Agency on all legal matters arising in connection with the official business of the Agency.
- B. Establish, maintain and control all Agency liaison with the Congress of the United States and Committees of national political parties.
- C. Review all proposed congressional legislation and make recommendations for appropriate action in those instances wherein Agency activities are affected.
- D. Make appropriate recommendations for additions, revisions or deletions to existing legislation covering all phases of Agency activities.
- E. Be responsible for and control liaison outside the Agency relating to legal matters.
- F. Review all regulatory material of the Agency for legality prior to publication.

SECRET

LAW

MISSION

As a staff officer, under the direct supervision of the Executive, the General Counsel is charged with providing all legal and legislative advice to the Agency.

FUNCTIONS

- I. With respect to legal matters the General Counsel shall:
 - A. Advise all officials and employees of the Agency on all legal matters arising in connection with the official business of the Agency.
 - B. Review all regulatory material of the Agency for legality prior to publication. Such review refers to overt and covert regulatory material.
 - C. Have the responsibility of participating in all legal matters concerned with the administration and operation of OSO, OPC and other covert activities.
 - D. Participate and advise in the over-all planning and activation of foreign clandestine projects and operations to assure compliance with rules, regulations, laws, and procedures as enacted by Congress or the DCI.
 - E. Be responsible in connection with foreign clandestine projects and operations that all operations, practices and policies of a non-governmental nature are consistent with general or special law and commercial practices as the case may be.
 - F. Assure that appropriate legal devices and techniques are utilized to safeguard substantial investments of the Government in subsidized or proprietary instrumentalities and assure adequate protection of employees, agents and other associates in regard to financial, personal and security matters.

- G. Reviews and approves contracts, personal services, procurement, financial or other activities necessary to the functions of the covert activities and offices of CIA.
 - H. Consult with the Assistant Directors for OPC and OSO concerning proposed undertakings and projects and to advise with respect to the legality thereof and make such ultimate suggestions as may be appropriate.
 - I. Advise interested offices with respect to the anticipated or probable legal effects of proposed actions and make appropriate recommendations thereon.
 - J. Conduct liaison with specific agencies of the Government where a common interest is involved, viz, Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of State, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Bureau of Employees Compensation, etc.
 - K. Establish specific programs for legal research in selected phases of the law.
- II. With respect to legislative matters the General Counsel shall:
- A. Establish, maintain and control all Agency liaison with the Congress of the United States and Committees of national political parties.
 - B. Review all proposed congressional legislation and make recommendations for appropriate action in those instances wherein Agency activities are affected.
 - D. Make appropriate recommendations for additions, revisions or deletions to existing legislation covering all phases of Agency activities.